Scope and Content

The collection consists of two court summons written by Henry Livingston while he was Dutchess County Clerk under the British Colony of New York. Also included are a number of secondary materials and reproductions concerning Henry Livingston likely gathered by W. Arthur Saltford, judging from an envelope in the collection, and the original correspondence surrounding the popularization of the Livingston claim to “A Visit from St. Nicholas.”

Historical Note

Henry Livingston, Jr. was born in Poughkeepsie on October 13, 1748 and lived in the region until he died in February of 1828. He was a poet, whose work was signed “R.” in many local publications, including the Poughkeepsie Journal. His family has claimed, with some evidence, that Livingston wrote the famous poem, “A Visit from St. Nicholas,” better known as, “The Night Before Christmas,” that was originally attributed to Clement Moore. The Livingston claim was first popularized by William Sturgis Thomas in the 1919 Dutchess County Historical Society yearbook.

Provenance

The Collection was donated to the Dutchess County Historical Society by Mrs. W. Arthur Saltford at an unknown date.
