

Call for Articles: Yearbook 2021

Women of Dutchess County, New York: Voices and Talents, Part II

Deadline: We are expecting submission of articles by February 1, 2021. We look forward with delight to reading your essays

The yearbook is planned to coordinate with the Dutchess County Historical Society's programming and continue the theme of the 2020 book by focusing on the lives and achievements of the women of our county. Topics can cover all of our history up to 50 years ago, our usual limit.

In 2021, as for the last several years, the yearbook will be divided into sections:

- (1) The Forum section will focus on essays and stories about women of Dutchess County. Articles may include topics from the more abstract such as discussions of women within historical movements to quite concrete matters such as accounts of individual residents of the county.
- (2) The Articles section will be devoted to essays on any worthwhile research regarding Dutchess County history.

Please submit your article to me in digital form as a Microsoft Word document. Articles for the Forum and Articles sections should be 2,000 to 4,000 words long. If possible, please submit at least one or two images with captions with each essay. Please check for copyright clearance. Send the images separately as jpegs (300 dpi or larger). Images may be black-and-white or color. Please send them with the draft, the figure captions indicated in the text (images are not an afterthought). Copyright will be shared between the Dutchess County Historical Society and the author. The author may re-issue the article in the year after it is published in the DCHS yearbook. DCHS asks that we be notified of any republication of your article.
